

Health and Wellbeing Queensland Reportable Gifts and Benefits 2024 - 2025

* Cumulative value of multiple gifts from the same donor exceeds $150 within the reportable financial year.

** For organisational donors, the name of the organisation is included. If the donor is an individual, this is a generic reference "Individual"

DETAILS				CONSIDERATIONS FOR ACCEPTING THE GIFT/BENEFIT		RECIPIENT
Gift description	Date gift/benefit was received	Organisation details	Retail value ($)	Reason for accepting or gifting	Gift received was: a) Retained by employee b) Retained by agency	Name of recipient
2 tickets to Broncos Deadly Choices Round	3/07/2024	Institute for Urban Indigenous Health (IUIH)	$ 600.00	Furtherers proactive partnering to facilitate better outcomes for the community.	Retained by agency	Dr Robyn Littlewood
2 tickets to Italian Chamber of Commerce & Industry in Australia (ICCI) Qld Annual Gala Dinner and Ball	26/07/2024	Queensland Performing Arts Centre	$ 300.00	Furtherers proactive partnering to facilitate better outcomes for the community.	Retained by employee	Dr Robyn Littlewood
Woolworths Supermarkets gift voucher	29/09/2024	Woolworths Group	$ 200.00	Used for the purchase and provision of fruit, distributed free of charge to families attending an event at the Olympics activation South Bank event	Retained by employee - to be distributed to the community	Clare Murray
2 tickets to Multicultural Fundraising Dinner	30/07/2024	Member for Southport	$ 200.00	Excellent opportunity for networking and raising profile of HWQld with specific community groups	Retained by employee	Dr Robyn Littlewood
1 ticket to Information Resilience Symposium 2024 - Education and Training for Thriving in the Age of AI.	7/08/2024	The University of Queensland - The Centre for Information Resilience (CIRES)	$ 25.00	Opportunity to network with experts in the field of AI to address challenges related to job displacement, misinformation, maintaining public trust in AI systems, and ensuring equitable access to AI technologies.	Retained by employee	Dr Sandra Pavey
Lunch at the Information Resilience Symposium 2024 - Education and Training for Thriving in the Age of AI.	7/08/2024	The University of Queensland - The Centre for Information Resilience (CIRES)	$ 25.00	Opportunity to network with experts in the field of AI to address challenges related to job displacement, misinformation, maintaining public trust in AI systems, and ensuring equitable access to AI technologies.	Retained by employee	Dr Likheng Chai
Ticket to First Nations performance of Horizon by Bangarra Dance Theatre at Qld Performing Arts Centre and pre-show dinner at the Jetty restaurant.	13/08/2024	Tonic Media	$ 120.00	Promoting reconciliation through our sphere of influence and increasing understanding, value and recognition of First Nations cultures, knowledge and right through cultural learning are actions identified within HWQld's RAP.	Retained by employee	Judy Nean
Ticket to First Nations performance of Horizon by Bangarra Dance Theatre at Qld Performing Arts Centre and pre-show dinner at the Jetty restaurant.	13/08/2024	Tonic Media	$ 120.00		Retained by employee	Annie Newton
Ticket to First Nations performance of Horizon by Bangarra Dance Theatre at Qld Performing Arts Centre and pre-show dinner at the Jetty restaurant.	13/08/2024	Tonic Media	$ 120.00		Retained by employee	Madeline Forde
2 tickets to QSO performance of 'Cinematic' on Friday 22 November	28/08/2024	Queensland Symphony Orchestra	$ 270.00	An opportunity to to strengthen ongoing stakeholder engagement and to experience the impact that the arts have on wellbeing.	Retained by employee	Annie Newton
Invitation to attend Brisbane Riverfire event	31/08/2024	Brisbane Convention & Exhibition Centre - Southbank Corporation	$ 70.00	The event provided a networking opportunity for HWQld to join with other government, university, not-for-profit and community organisations across Queensland to celebrate Riverfire, and provide an opportunity to connect over an extended period.	Retained by employee	Sandra Pavey
Singapore gift sets - 2 x sets coasters, 1 x knot bag, 1x set pocket squares	2/09/2024	Singapore Health Promotion Board	$ 241.00	Gift acknowledges the mutual respect between the agencies to share knowledge and learnings in the space of public health.	Retained by employee	Mark Tuohy
Breakfast at the Business of economics and AI in Healthcare	13/09/2024	The University of Queensland	$ 25.00	An opportunity to liaise with experts from eHealth Queensland and the academic sector to discuss how healthcare organisations must evaluate the applications of AI in healthcare including costs versus benefits, considering the return on investment from improved outcomes reduced costs and transformative potential.	Retained by employee	Dr Sandra Pavey
Breakfast at the Business of economics and AI in Healthcare	13/09/2024	The University of Queensland	$ 25.00		Retained by employee	Mark Tuohy
Travel expenses for HWQld employee to attend a 2-day workshop to co-develop a case study for the National Health and Medical Research Council (NHMRC) Food Policy Partnership research project in Melbourne.	15/10/2024	Deakin University, Burwood Campus, Locked Bag 20000, Geelong, VIC 3220	$ 905.75	The potential research outputs will directly benefit the evaluation of impact of the Queensland Government's Gather + Grow Remote Food Security Strategy 2023-2032. The intention of the workshop will be to establish Gather + Grow as a successful policy intervention case study, with a research focus on inter-agency government collaboration and multidisciplinary partnerships to improve food security in remote QLD Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities.	Retained by employee	Kora Uhlman
Hotel accommodation as part of the Asia Pacific Incentives and Meeting Event (AIME) hosted buyer program in February 2025.	23/10/2024	Asia Pacific Incentives and Meeting Event (AIME)	$ 600.00	Attendance at this event enabled the opportunity to research and review best practice delivery methods for events and public activations, including face to face meetings with suppliers and first-hand experiences to new approaches to event management.	Retained by employee	Tina Waters
Lunch at the Queensland Digital Health Centre (Q DHeC) Annual Symposium	7/11/2024	The University of Queensland	$ 25.00	This symposium provided an opportunity to showcase the breadth of research and for partners to learn of opportunities to partner and progress initiatives across the digital health sector. The community will benefit through the reserach driving evidence, innovation and implementation of new research in the short to longer term to support digital health.	Retained by employee	Dr Sandra Pavey
The Future of Business: UQ Business Industry Partners Lunch	7/11/2024	The University of Queensland	$ 25.00	A panel of academics and industry leaders discussed how purpose-driven innovation can create long-term benefits. This research and innovation will help Queensland deliver new solutions to improve health and wellbeing services and programs.	Retained by employee	Dr Likheng Chai
Floral brooch and silk floral scarf	14/11/2024	Shanghai Disease Control and Prevention Administration	$ 150.00	Gift acknowledges the mutual respect between the agencies to share knowledge and learnings in the space of public health.	Retained by agency	Gift retained by the agency
Indoor plant	13/12/2024	Queensland Symphony Orchestra	$ 40.00	Gift was sent to offer condolences.	Accepted by employee	Dr Robyn Littlewood
Invitation to join the Griffith sponsor table at the prestigious Sports Star Awards	11/02/2025	Griffith University	$ 250.00	Networking opportunity with Griffith University, other government and industry members that may provide additional connections to assist HWQld in informing and shaping components of the broader healthy legacy initiatives and in the lead up to the 2032 Games.	Retained by employee	Dr Sandra Pavey
3 Deadly Choices rugby jerseys and 2 pairs of Grip Star socks presented at the Deadly Choices 2025 Launch.	20/02/2025	Institute for Urban Indigenous Health	$ 250.00	Gift was presented during attendance at Deadly Choices 2025 Launch. The event was an opportunity for Deadly Choices to host a diverse range of sporting partners, acknowledge the collective commitment to improving Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander health outcomes and yarn about Deadly Choices' future.	Retained by employee	Dr Robyn Littlewood
1 ticket to 'An Evening with Graham Norton' event at BCEC	27/02/2025	Brisbane Convention and Exhibition Centre (BCEC)	$ 75.00	Networking opportunity with event staff of BCEC. Will help HWQld to better understand the venue layout and spaces and to foster increased collaboration with BCEC staff ahead of delivery of the ABC Conference in the second half of 2025.	Retained by employee	Tina Waters
1 ticket to 'An Evening with Graham Norton' event at BCEC	27/02/2025	Brisbane Convention and Exhibition Centre (BCEC)	$ 75.00		Retained by employee	Clare Murray
2 tickets to Premier of Cirque Alice taking place at QPAC on Friday 11 April	11/03/2025	Queensland Performing Arts Centre (QPAC)	$ 398.00	Furtherers proactive partnering to facilitate better outcomes for the community.	Retained by employee	Dr Robyn Littlewood
Orchid in ceramic vase	27/03/2025	Windsor Group	$ 150.00	Gift was given to panel members, also a networking opportunity.	Retained by employee	Dr Robyn Littlewood
Frank Green duo water bottle set, a $50 New Farm Confectionery gift voicher and a boxed flower arrangement.	9/04/2025	Springfield City Group 10/145 Sinnathamby Blvd, Springfield Central Q 4300	$ 300.00	This was a networking opportunity for HWQLD CEO to participate in a community based event celebrating International Women's Day.	Retained by employee	Dr Robyn Littlewood
1 invitation to attend QUT Business Leaders Forum	10/04/2025	Queensland University Technology	$ 200.00	Networking opportunity - invited as a Guest of QUT. Guest speaker was Josephine Sukkar AM, who brings a wealth of experience through her long involvement in sports, including her appointment as Chair of the Australian Sports Commission.	Retained by employee	Dr Robyn Littlewood
1 ticket to attend Committee for Economic Development of Australia (CEDA) event - Meeting Queensland's Future Health Workforce needs	29/04/2025	The University of Queensland - Business School	$ 167.00	The event provided the opportunity to hear directly from the Minister for Health and Ambulance Services regarding current government priorities, and about his portfolio as the new incoming Minister. This provided an additional opportunity to consider HWQld's current priorities and how they can support the commitment of the new Minister whilst we deliver on our remit in improving the health and wellbeing of the Queensland Community.	Accepted by employee	Dr Sandra Pavey
2 tickets to opening night of Swan Lake at QPAC on 31/05/2025	20/05/2025	Queensland Performing Arts Centre	$ 488.00	Furtherers proactive partnering to facilitate better outcomes for the community.	Gift was declined	Dr Robyn Littlewood
Breakfast provided for attendees at Global healthcare perspectives	4/06/2025	The University of Queensland - Business School	$ 25.00	The event brought together global healthcare researchers and Queensland stakeholders to explore shared challenges and opportunities across the U.S. and Chinese healthcare systems. The insights gained aim to strengthen Queensland's health system through research-driven innovation, evidence, and improved health and wellbeing solutions.	Accepted by employee	Dr Likheng Chai
Invitation to join Griffith University table at the lunch with Deputy Premier Jarrod Bleijie - Brisbane 2032 delivery plan update	18/06/2025	Griffith University	$ 242.00	Queensland Deputy Premier Jarrod Bleijie will deliver the first public update on the strategy for the Brisbane 2032 Olympic and Paralympic Games. This is a key opportunity to hear about progress and next steps for this landmark event, with a focus on how it can drive lasting health and wellbeing outcomes across Queensland—before, during, and beyond 2032.	Retained by employee	Dr Robyn Littlewood
Invitationto attend a corporatea QUT lunch: Going for Gold - Lifting our Economic Trajectory as a Guest of Springfield City Group.	26/06/2025	Sprinfield City Group	$ 320.00	The Brisbane 2032 Olympic and Paralympic Games are set to drive significant economic growth across Queensland. This event will launch Deloitte's Going for Gold report, offering key insights into the Games' long-term impact and the opportunities it presents. Attending may also provide valuable connections to support HWQld's role in informing and shaping components of the broader healthy legacy initiatives in the lead-up to the 2032 Games.	Accepted by employee	Dr Sandra Pavey